REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

To the Citizens of the Dublin School District:

We herewith submit the one hundred and sixth annual report of our schools.

The schedule of work has been closely followed during this last year. There have been no interruptions caused by illness or bad weather, and as a result the year is closing with marked progress having been made in most subjects required in the school curriculum.

We have been very fortunate to retain for this year three of the previous staff of Teachers whose work has been most conscientious and progressive.

Miss Grace Hague, a graduate of Keene Normal School, was appointed as Teacher in the Primary room at No. 1.

She has also served as Music Supervisor in the four schools and this added feature has proven successful.

Necessary repairs have been made in all the School Buildings and we are hoping to be able to install some playground equipment on the grounds of the three School Houses during the coming year.

Regular monthly meetings with members of the School Board and Superintendent have been held during the year with the interest of the children uppermost in our minds.

We wish to thank Parents and Friends of the School children for the co-operation which has been manifested.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SUPERVISORY UNION NO. 47 OF THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE TO THE SCHOOL BOARD OF DUBLIN, N. H.

Only twelve towns in the state expend less on the current costs for education than does Dublin, if the wealth of the various towns of the state is the basis of comparison.

The great wealth of the town, in connection with the needs of the pupils in the schools, lays a particularly heavy burden upon the school board.

Children who are transported over as fine roads as modern science can offer, should find the best of education at the end of the trip.

The School Board has adopted a complete system of pupil accounting, by which it can determine, three times during each school year, the actual conditions of educational practice in its schools. This system also makes possible the knowledge of where Dublin Schools exceed or fall short of grade standards for the country as a whole.

In view of the fact that many school boards are concerned far more over the financial conditions than over the proving that whatever money is expended has brought as large as possible a return to the town, this action on the part of Dublin's school board could well receive appreciative comment from all citizens who believe that children are more important than dollars, but that also the importance of expending each dollar for the best possible investment in schooling should be watched efficiently.

During the past year, four teachers have been employed. The enrollment of pupils was 80. The per cent of attendance was not high, being only 90.4. Only two pupils were neither absent nor tardy during the school year. Cases of tardiness markedly decreased from 214 in the previous year to 54 in the past year.

All 4 teachers are graduates of New Hampshire normal schools.

We believe that the town recognizes and appreciates their services in the schools. Certainly, the records which the Board has observed made on standard ratings of the work of the children in the schools, are proof that loyal and intelligent service is being given.

Dublin is maintaining a program of building alterations and repair which will result in very superior school buildings. There is opportunity for the town to consider the possibility of offering to the children educational opportunities and physical surrounding that cannot be exceeded in worth those which any town or city in New Hampshire can offer.

We believe that this is the goal towards which the School Board is working, and that it can arrive there without disturbing the tax rate and without establishing any faulty precedents for expenditure.

Roads and schools are the two forms of advertising which may be enjoyed by the citizens and at the same time attract those who desire the best for themselves and their children.

For the friendly spirit that is always shown supervision by the citizens of Dublin, whether officially or sympathetically shown by support of the schools and maintenance of interest in achievement of the individual pupils or grades, the superintendent of schools returns his hearty thanks, on behalf of the children.

(Signed) LAWTON CHASE

February 7, 1928

With the submission of this report I take occasion to commend the present staff of teachers for their splendid efforts in preventative health work. There has been particular improvement in School District No. 2. We cannot appeal too strongly to the parents for co-operation with our department. In some cases the same defects have gone uncorrected for several years which of course is unjust to the children involved and to the town which pays for the examination. Your examiner will always be glad to explain any point which may not be understood and help in the correction or refer you to the proper authorities for your particular needs.

We hope to carry out a campaign against Diphtheria during the coming year both for the school children and those of pre-school age.

During the past year tonsil clinics were held at the Peterborough Hospital and it is expected that this work will be continued during the coming summer. Expenses have been adjusted to meet the needs of all and it is to be hoped that more will embrace this splendid opportunity for needed corrections.
